

The Heather Hayes Experience

Being born to greatness doesn't guarantee that greatness will be passed on, but in this case it's undeniable. Born the daughter of legendary soul singer, songwriter, actor and music producer Isaac Hayes, Heather Hayes has greatness flowing systemically through her veins.

While under the tutelage of her father and music greats like the "Godfather of Soul", James Brown, Heather honed her skills as an entertainer with the unique ability to leave audiences breathless and wanting more. Heather's musical experiences don't end there, she's worked as a singer for artists such as Beyonce Knowles and Arrested Development, danced for Michael Jackson, Sean P. Diddy Combs and Brian McKnight and danced and choreographed stage shows for James Brown.

The Heather Hayes Experience has had the pleasure of performing for such 'A' list actors as Ben Affleck & Jennifer Aniston & CNN analyst James Carville to name a few. The Heather Hayes Experience has also had the honor of performing alongside The Commodores.

Heather has taken the crowd-pleasing formula of her professional experience and combined it with a soul-stirring band for a combination that's simply outstanding. The group's instrumentation and vocal ability allows a flexibility that's a hit at any event. This is one band you don't want to miss!
